

Greetings from Hong Kong!

I am Eric, the China Campaigner of Amnesty International based in Hong Kong. We got your contact and the information of the “Day of the Endangered Lawyer” through Stuart Russell, and we would like to see if there is any possible collaboration between us.

We have been campaigning on the 709 crackdown against lawyers and activists since it happened in July 2015. Here are some of our outputs for your references:

Urgent Action: Seven missing in feared attack on law firm (10 July 2015)

Updated Urgent Action: Dozens of lawyers targeted in crackdown (13 July 2015)

Press release: Dozens of human rights lawyers targeted in nationwide crackdown (11 July 2015)

Press release: Lawyers face 15 years in jail on ‘chilling’ state security charges (16 July 2015)

Press release: End relentless repression against human rights lawyers on first anniversary of crackdown (7 July 2016)

Press release: Assault on human rights lawyers and activists escalates with convictions after sham trials (4 Aug 2016)

Story page: A year on China's crackdown on human rights lawyers (July 2016)

Our preliminary idea is to raise the profile of selected lawyers such as Li Heping, Wang Quanzhang, Xie Yang and Jiang Tianyong among our global members, and to call for their immediate release.

Please let us know if you have any ideas on above. Also it would be good if you can send us some of your action materials. Thanks so much in advance!

Regards,

Eric
